Re: Case #12E103

Dear Ms. Dill:

The Missouri Ethics Commission, considered at the July 13, 2012 meeting, the complaint filed against you. The Commission reviewed the allegation of failure to file a non-committee expenditure report, pursuant to Chapter 130, RSMo.

From the facts presented, the Commission voted to dismiss this case. The investigation showed that you filed a non-committee expenditure report with the Commission on April 3, 2012 and reported expenditures for a mailer opposing Laura Bryant. This report was available to the public on the Commission's website. The Missouri campaign finance law requires that non-committee expenditure reports be filed with the local election authority, in this case, the St. Louis County Board of Elections. In the future, if you choose to file a non-committee expenditure report with the Commission, please ensure that the report is also filed locally.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Julie A. Allen".

Executive Director
