Re: Case #12E117

Dear Ms. Dill:

The Missouri Ethics Commission, considered at the July 13, 2012 meeting, the complaint filed against you. The Commission reviewed the allegation that you concealed the involvement of Barry Glantz in a political mailer in opposition to his opponent for Mayor of Creve Coeur, Laura Bryant, and that you purposely omitted the costs of the political mailer on a non-committee expenditure report.

The investigation showed that you arranged and paid for the mailer at issue. The evidence showed that the Barry Glantz campaign used the same printer for its campaign mailings and therefore, the mailers contained the same bulk mail permit of the printer. There was no evidence that Mayor Glantz participated in or knew of the negative mailer.

The investigation also showed that you filed a non-committee expenditure report with the Commission on April 3, 2012 and reported $2,001.85 in expenditures for a mailer opposing Laura Bryant. This report was available on the Commission's website. The amount expended was in fact the amount billed by the printer for the actual cost of the mailing.

Sincerely,
