Re: Case No 12C172

Dear Mr. McCaherty:

The Missouri Ethics Commission considered, at the August 28, 2012 meeting, the complaint filed against you and Citizens for McCaherty. The Commission reviewed the allegation that you failed to report expenditures or in-kind donations explaining the cost of two fund raising events.

The investigation showed that you did report certain monetary contributions as itemized contributions received. For one of the fund raisers, there was no facility cost. Prior to the second fund raiser, a policy change was made to charge individuals for facility usage. This should have been initially reported by you as an incurred expenditure. You have subsequently filed the necessary amended reports.

The Commission voted to dismiss the case and reminds you to ensure you follow all campaign finance reporting requirements.

Sincerely,
