At the June 3, 2004 meeting of the Missouri Ethics Commission, your request for an opinion was considered. The following is the Commission's response to your question:

Is there a conflict of interest for a state representative to also hold a position as a planner with a regional council?

The Commission stated that you may hold the position with the regional planning council, while also serving as a state representative. However, you should be aware that you cannot vote on any matter giving a special monetary benefit to the regional council.

Sincerely,

R. F. Connor
Executive Director
