CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

COUNT I

Failure To Terminate Committee

14. Section 130.011(9) defines the limits of a candidate committee under Missouri's campaign finance, stating in part:

Candidate committee... shall terminate the later of either thirty days after the general election for a candidate who was not elected or upon the satisfaction of all committee debt after the election, except that no committee retiring debt shall engage in any other activities in support of the candidate for which the committee was formed[.]

15. Where Respondents was an unsuccessful candidate in the November 3, 2020, general election, where the committee had no debt, and where Respondents failed to terminate within 30 days of the general election, there is probable cause to believe Respondents violated § 130.011(9) giving this Commission the power to act as permitted under § 105.961.

Failure To Maintain an Official Depository Account

16. Pursuant to Section 130.021.4(1), RSMo, "every committee shall have a single official fund depository within this state which shall be a federally or state-chartered bank, a federally or state-chartered savings and loan association, or a federally or state-chartered credit union in which the committee shall open and thereafter maintain at least one official depository account in its own name."

17. Where Respondents closed the committee's official depository account, but did not terminate the committee, there is probable cause to believe Respondents violated § 130.021.4(1) giving this Commission the power to act as permitted under § 105.961.

COUNT II

Personal use of campaign contributions

18. "Contributions as defined in section 130.011, received by any committee shall not be converted to any personal use" § 130.034.1, RSMo.

19. Where Respondents transferred $92.00 from the committee account to a personal checking account, there is probable cause to believe Respondents violated § 130.034.1 giving this Commission the power to act as permitted under § 105.961

COUNT III

Failure to timely and accurately file campaign finance disclosure reports.

20. Pursuant to § 130.046.1, RSMo, all committees must file regular campaign finance disclosure reports at the following times and for the following periods: (3) Not later than the fifteenth day following the close of each calendar quarter.

21. Pursuant to § 130.146.5(2), RSMo,

No disclosure report needs to be filed for any reporting period if during that reporting period the committee has neither received contributions aggregating more than five hundred dollars nor made expenditure aggregating more than five hundred dollars and has not received contributions aggregating more than three hundred dollars from any single contributor and if the committee's treasurer files a statement with the appropriate officer that the committee has not exceeded the identified thresholds in the reporting period. Any contributions received or expenditures made which are not reported because this statement is filed in lieu of a disclosure report shall be included in the next disclosure report filed by the committee. This statement shall not be filed in lieu of the report for two or more consecutive disclosure periods if either the contributions received or expenditures made in the aggregate during those reporting periods exceed five hundred dollars.

22. Where Respondents failed to file seven reports, there is probable cause to believe Respondents violated § 130.046, RSMo, giving this Commission the power to act as permitted under § 105.961.

COUNT IV

Failure to timely and accurately report contributions.

23. All committees are required to report contributions for each reporting period, receipts for the period, including:

(a) Total amount of all monetary contributions received which can be identified in the committee's records by name and address of each contributor. In addition, the candidate committee shall make a reasonable effort to obtain and report the employer, or occupation if self-employed or notation of retirement, of each person from whom the committee received one or more contributions which in the aggregate total in excess of one hundred dollars and shall make a reasonable effort to obtain and report a description of any contractual relationship over five hundred dollars between the contributor and the state if the candidate is seeking election to a state office or between the contributor and any political subdivision of the state if the candidate is seeking election to another political subdivision of the state;

(e) A separate listing by name and address and employer, or occupation if self-employed or notation of retirement, of each person from whom the committee received contributions, in money or any other thing of value, aggregating more than one hundred dollars, together with the date and amount of each such contribution;

(f) A listing of each loan received by name and address of the lender and date and amount of the loan. For each loan of more than one hundred dollars, a separate statement shall be attached setting forth the name and address of the lender and each person liable directly, indirectly or contingently, and the date, amount and terms of the loan[.]

§ 130.041.1(3), RSMo.

24. Where Respondents failed to report nine contributions, there is probable cause to believe Respondents violated § 130.041.1(3), RSMo, giving this Commission the power to act as permitted under § 105.961.

25. All committees are required to report expenditures for each reporting period, including:

(a) The total dollar amount of expenditures made by check drawn on the committee's depository;

(b) The total dollar amount of expenditures made in cash;

(d) The full name and mailing address of each person to whom an expenditure of money or any other thing of value in the amount of more than one hundred dollars has been made, contracted for or incurred, together with the date, amount and purpose of each expenditure. Expenditures of one hundred dollars or less may be grouped and listed by categories of expenditure showing the total dollar amount of expenditures in each category, except that the report shall contain an itemized listing of each payment made to campaign workers by name, address, date, amount and purpose of each payment and the aggregate amount paid to each such worker[.]

§ 130.041.1(4), RSMo.

26. Where Respondents failed to report eleven expenditures, there is probable cause to believe Respondents violated § 130.041.1(4), RSMo, giving this Commission the power to act as permitted under § 105.961.
