Additional Information

Mandatory Quarterly Reports— 130.046.1(3), RSMo

All committees must file quarterly disclosure reports no later than the 15th day following the close of each calendar quarter. These reports are due until the committee terminates.

Report Title	Closing Date	Deadline
January Quarterly Report*	December 31, 2024	January 15, 2025
April Quarterly Report	March 31, 2025	April 15, 2025
July Quarterly Report	June 30, 2025	July 15, 2025
October Quarterly Report	September 30, 2025	October 15, 2025

* The 2025 January Quarterly Report is optional.

Time-sensitive conditional reports

48 Hour Report of Contribution over $5,000 Received— 130.044.1, RSMo

Any individual or committee that receives a single contribution (including a loan) from a contributor in an amount over $5,000 must electronically report the contribution to the MEC within 48 hours of receipt. This contribution must also be included in the committee's next filed report.

24 Hour Notice of Late Contribution Received— 130.050.3, RSMo

Any receipt of a contribution (including a loan) in an amount over $250 that is received less than 12 days before an election, must be reported within 24 hours of its receipt. This contribution must also be included in the committee's next filed report.

24 Hour Late Expenditure Report— 130.046.3(2), RSMo

Each time a continuing committee (PAC) aggregates more than $250 in expenditures made or incurred (not including contributions made to candidates or other committees) less than 12 days before an election, a full disclosure report must be filed within 24 hours.

- TIMELY FILING: Deadlines are set by state law. If a deadline would fall on a weekend or official holiday, it is extended to the next business day (unless the report/notice would be due less than eight days before an election, in which case there are no extensions). Late filed reports are assessed a daily late fee.
- MANDATORY V. CONDITIONAL REPORTS: Quarterly reports are mandatory for all committees. Those involved in an election cycle may need to file election-specific reports if certain conditions are met.
- TIME PERIOD COVERED: Campaign finance reports disclose activity from the day after the closing date of a committee's last filed full disclosure report through the closing date for the report, as set by state law.
